Dear Ian Ruskin,

Thank you for the magic of bringing a timeless hero to life for us at Sonoma State University last Friday night. We looked forward to an entertaining and historically educational evening, but what you brought to us through the Harry Bridges Project was much more a phenomenal experience. Harry Bridges was with us that evening, just as compelling a hero of the working class as ever. The incorruptible integrity and passionate spirit behind expressions like "An injury to one is an injury to all," resonate more deeply today than ever.

Thank you for sharing the gift of legend, power, and promise.

Sincerely,

Tricia Boreta, Event Coordinator
